READ AND PUBLISH AGREEMENT

Bentham Science is pleased to offer the institutions in Poland a Read and Publish Agreement, some features of which are highlighted below.

Bentham Science is pleased to offer the consortium and institutions in Poland a Read and Publish Agreement, some features of which are highlighted below.

Our Read and Publish Agreement allows the consortium and institutions to access the complete collection of Bentham Science journals with perpetual access rights, including access to all Back-files from the year 2000 till date. For a small additional fee, the institutions can also have access to over 1000 ebooks and access to our 6 disease-wise article databases (oncology, diabetes, cardiology, inflammation and allergy, Covid-19 / coronaviruses and central nervous system).

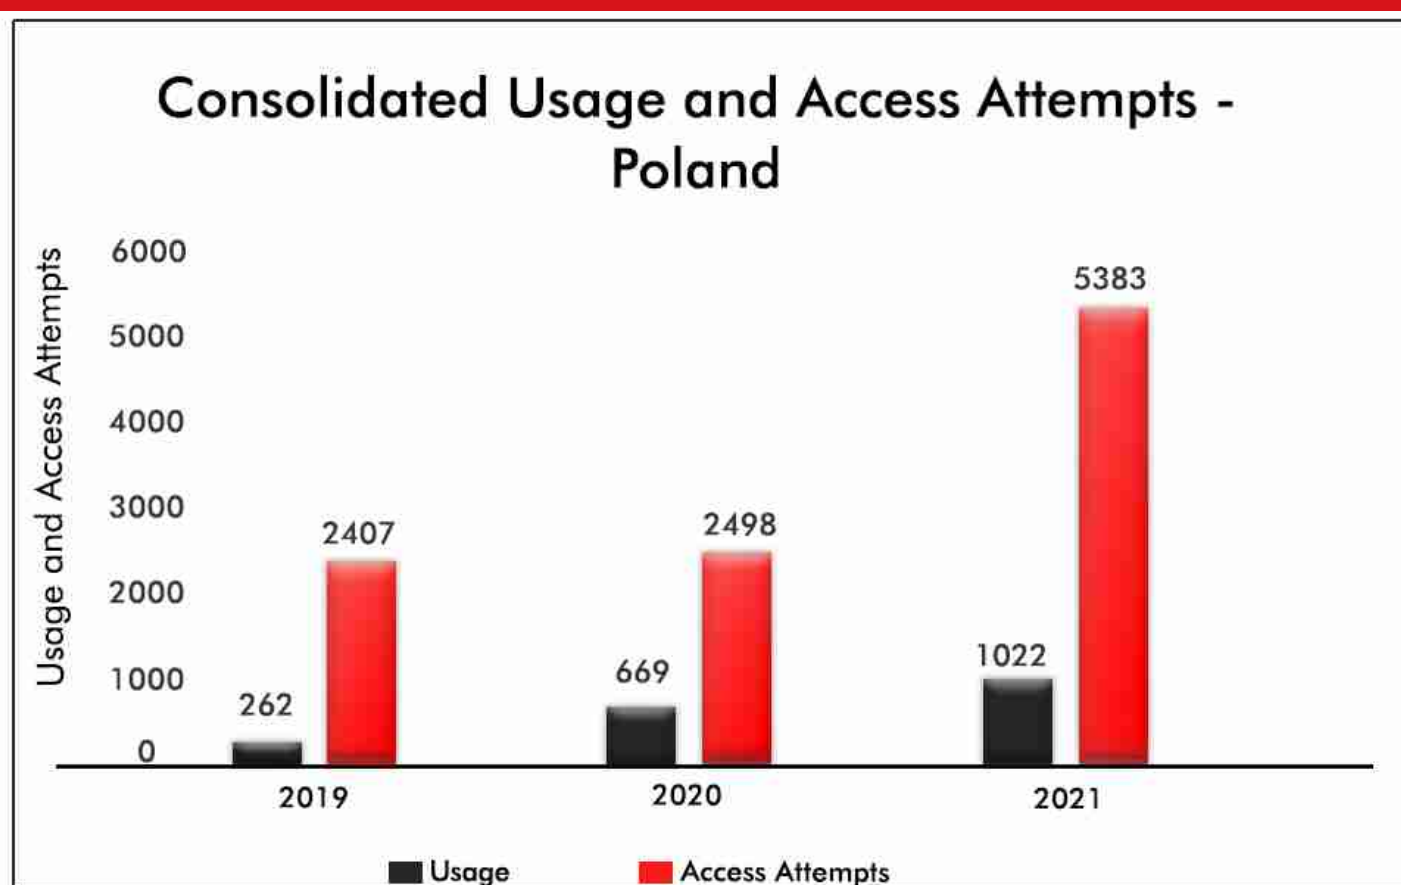

In addition, the researchers from the institutions can publish open access articles with the fees covered ( $APC=0$ ), in all Bentham Science journals (in total 176 titles). Open Access publishing will give higher visibility and greater impact to research funded in Poland. This will benefit both local institutions and researchers as well as international collaborations. In this agreement, there is no limit on the number of articles published.
